

NEWS FROM RICHMOND AND OTHER PARTS OF VIRGINIA.

THE PRESIDENT AND VIRGINIA

Suggested that Mr. McKinley Came to Look Over the Field.

LEE AS A DARK HORSE

Politicians in Richmond Discuss the General in Connection With Senatorship—He is Pleased With Captain Tennant to be Elected Tuesday.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Va., Oct. 31.—President McKinley seemed to make a most favorable impression upon the people of Richmond. His progress through the city was a continuous ovation, and so well was he pleased with Virginia hospitality that he declared he would like to come to Richmond to live.

DIDN'T TALK POLITICS.

The President was not talking politics to any extent while here, but it was evident that he had an eye to the main chance. Reports have been circulated to the effect that Virginia is in a somewhat shaky condition politically and it is believed that he came here for the purpose of looking over the field and endeavoring to turn the tide his way.

THE SENATORIAL CANVASS.

The presence here to-day of Senator Martin. General Fitzhugh Lee and Governor Tyler started the politicians to talking about General Lee being sprung as a dark horse at the last minute for the Senatorship. Some people give credit to such an idea, but their number is not very large. It is said, too, that General Lee would like to come back to the quiet Capital of his native State and spend four more years in the Executive Mansion. He himself, however, has not said how he feels about it.

PLEASED WITH CURA.

The General, from his few remarks here, seems much pleased with his residence in Cuba, and he is believed to be in favor of its permanent retention by the United States.

A PRETTY MARRIAGE.

A pretty marriage took place at Park Place Methodist Church, when Miss Annie Bernice Hillman became the bride of Mr. Edwin Morgan Michaels. Miss Hillman is the daughter of Dr. John Albert Hillman, and is one of Richmond's most attractive young ladies. Mr. Michaels is in the employ of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

CAPT. TENNANT INJURED.

Captain Julian Tennant, a solicitor for the Richmond Transfer Company, was knocked down and badly hurt at the Eighth Street Station of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at about 9 o'clock this morning.

Captain Tennant was standing on the main track and when a passenger train came in he stepped across to a siding. A shifting engine came up in opposite direction and struck Captain Tennant on the left hip and knocked him down. The engine was moving slowly. The injuries were very painful, if not more serious.

Employees placed Captain Tennant in a hack and took him to the office of the Transfer Company. A city ambulance was called and the injured man was removed to the Richmond Hospital.

PREPARATIONS FOR ELECTION.

Preparations are being made here for the election which takes place next Tuesday. It will be a quiet one in Richmond from present indications. Great interest is felt here, however, regarding the outcome in close counties.

ROANOKE.

DEATH—A NARROW ESCAPE—WANTED IN PORTSMOUTH.

Roanoke, Va., October 31.—Mrs. Ida Gray, the estimable wife of Mr. George Gray, of Vinton, died last night. She is survived by her husband and three children.

Gordon Feliz, the 6-year-old son of Detective Feliz, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday. He was riding a wheel on Campbell street and collided with a street car. He was dragged some distance, but escaped with slight bruises.

Ernest Taylor and W. H. Hancock were arrested yesterday charged with larceny in Portsmouth a year ago. They will be held for the Portsmouth authorities.

DISTRESSING SITUATION.

Parties from the neighborhood of Bluefield and Welch, W. Va., report a very serious state of affairs as the result of mountain fires, which have been raging for several weeks. Welch has to carry water for some distance, and the Bluefield water supply is getting short. Thousands of dollars' worth of timber have been destroyed, and people have fled from their homes. There was a light fall of rain at Bluefield yesterday.

A difficulty occurred near Vinton Saturday night between two farmers—Rough and Huddlestone—in which the latter was seriously injured.

PETERSBURG.

YOUTHFUL ELOPING COUPLE—TRAVEL DELAYS TRAIN.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 31.—Mr. Gregg Ezell and Miss Meeta Seward, both of Brunswick county, arrived here Sunday night, en route for Halifax, N. C., where they were married at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The groom is nineteen years of age and a son of Dr. W. R. Ezell, a prominent citizen of Brunswick. The bride, who is sixteen, is quite pretty.

The couple arrived here last night, and this morning they left for the home of the groom.

Mr. Samuel McEwen and Miss Annie Johnson will be married at Gospel Hall in Matoaca, Chesterfield county, Tuesday night. The prospective groom is a popular young tailor of this city, and the bride-elect is a very popular and pretty young lady of Matoaca.

About five hundred people went from Petersburg to Richmond to attend the Civic Carnival parade and the launching of the Shubrick.

The east-bound Norfolk and Western passenger train due here at 7:30 o'clock, was about two hours behind schedule time this morning. The delay is said to have been due to heavy travel.

Naomi Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this city, is making arrangements for a grand rally.

Mr. James P. Jackson, who has been quite ill, is now able to sit up.

Miss Lizzie Plummer has gone to Lexington, Ky., to spend the winter.

NEWPORT NEWS.

TWO BOYS CARRIED OFF—ANOTHER LAUNCHING.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 31.—John M. Shores, the 17-year-old son of Mr. C. E. Shores, of No. 531 Thirty-fifth street, and Thomas Turpin, the 16-year-old son of Mr. T. T. Turpin, of Bedford City, Va., who had been living with Mr. Shores for several weeks and had been working in the ship-yard, were carried to sea some days ago on the Italian bark Memonia and it is the belief of the fathers of the boys that their sons were stolen.

Both of the boys were steadily at work until the day they disappeared from home. They came here directly from Bedford City and prior to their arrival had never seen a ship.

Mr. Shores stated this morning that the boys must have been taken away against their will, as they left everything they had behind and went away in their working clothes.

ANOTHER LAUNCHING.

There will be another launching at the ship-yard one week from today. About 10 o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, November 7, the steamship Minnie, building for the Cromwell Line, will be launched.

The contract for the Comus and Proteus, of this line, were awarded to the Newport News Ship-building and Drydock Company shortly after the ship-yard received the contracts for four new Morgan liners. All of the Morgan ships have been put in the water—three are now in service and one only remains at the yard, receiving the finishing touches.

Shortly after the Comus is launched to Proteus will be put overboard.

HAMPTON.

INVESTIGATING LIQUOR FUND—A SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Hampton, Va., Oct. 31.—Commonwealth's Attorney E. E. Montague and Messrs. E. W. Holt and S. J. Dudley yesterday commenced an investigation into the liquor fund, which has been given out, this causing the county police to go without pay for their services.

The committee will take up the liquor fund from the time it was inaugurated up to the present time, and will see if there has been any mistake made in the report of County Treasurer Jesse Jones, which disclosed the fact that the fund had been entirely consumed. They are confident that Treasurer Jones' report is correct, but on the advice of Judge Lee, it was deemed wise to go over the entire work of the past seven years. They will make a report of their findings to Judge Lee Monday, when the County Court convenes for the November term.

MOON-BIRDSALL.

Mr. Victor M. Moon, of Hampton, and Miss Bessie Birdsall, a popular young lady of Fredericksburg, surprised their large circle of friends by being married in Fredericksburg Saturday afternoon, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Annie Birdsall.

LYNCHBURG.

TIMID BRIDE RUNS AWAY—APPROACHING MARRIAGE.

Lynchburg, Va., October 31.—Mr. John Tiers Rendon and Miss Margaret Louise Atlee, of Baltimore, were married here Saturday. The young couple were to have been married in Baltimore Friday afternoon, but the young lady became so frightened at the prospect of marriage that she ran away to Lynchburg accompanied by her aunt.

The groom, however, was not to be deterred and on learning where she had gone, he followed her, and persuaded her to go through the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. J. McGurk, pastor of the Church of the Holy Cross.

MINISTER TO WED.

Rev. Graham H. Lambeth, pastor of the Cabell Street Methodist Church, and Miss Virginia Lavender, daughter of Mr. N. H. Lavender, will be married Wednesday, November 1st, at the home of the bride. The wedding will be very quiet, and will be attended by only the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the family.

Mr. Lambeth has been pastor of the Cabell Street Church for a year, having succeeded Rev. Gus W. Dyer. During his residence here he has won the esteem and affection of all with whom he has come into contact, and it is confidently predicted that he will be returned here by the Virginia Conference.

Miss Lavender is a charming and beautiful young lady, and is universally admired for her many lovable qualities.

FOR MEN ONLY

My little book, "Three Causes of Men's" sent free in plain sealed envelope upon request. It embodies the truths I have learned from my 30 years' experience as a specialist. It tells all about my famous DR. SANDEN ELECTRIC BELT, the great home self-treatment for weak men. This Belt is worn at night, curing while you sleep, and ready to use at any time, etc., such as: Brains, Lungs, Impotency, Leucorrhoea, Back and Kidney troubles, etc. I answer all letters personally, or may be examined at my office.

TOWN OF SUFFOLK

Death of Mr. John Pretlow, Prominent Citizen of Southampton.

Mr. John C. Thomas, of Isle of Wight, Dead—Storm Aftermath—Another Liquor Fight Brewing—Other Items of Interest.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 31.—John Pretlow, one of the most prominent citizens of Southampton county, died about 8 o'clock this morning, aged 76 years. Death came at his country home, near Franklin. He had been losing strength some weeks. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from the Episcopal Church at Franklin.

The deceased leaves an estate worth $100,000. He had given away many thousands of dollars. He leaves a wife and six children, one of whom, Robert A. Pretlow, is superintendent of the Albemarle Steam Navigation Company of Franklin. The other five are: John A. Richard B. Katie Sykes, Barclay and Sue Pretlow. The widow, who is the mother of the younger children, was Sue Sykes. The first wife was Evie Pretlow. The deceased was a cousin of Hon. J. Denson Pretlow and Mrs. J. L. McLemore, of Suffolk. There are others.

JOHN C. THOMAS.

Mr. J. C. Thomas died this afternoon at his home, near Isle of Wight Court-house, aged 74 years. He leaves a number of children and other relatives in several Virginia cities.

STORM AFTERMATH.

Last night's storm made the country near the county bridge look like Lake Killbuck. The tide was the highest for many months. All over town there were prostrate poles and fences. Farmers report many peanut stacks blown down.

RIVER DISASTERS.

Gaskins' Wharf, on Nansemond river, was washed away. It will take $1,500 to replace it.

Lee's Wharf was damaged to the extent of $200.

Schooner W. S. Rawley was run ashore at Nix's Wharf; damage trifling.

A sloop whose name I didn't get was run aground at Houseman's. Numerous smaller craft had hard luck.

LIQUOR FIGHT BREWING.

A deal has been consummated which will bring about another liquor fight at Holland. They need a liquor contest over there every few months to have something to talk about. The last fight proposed didn't add any more bar-rooms.

The next applicant will likely be D. J. Odom. Odom has bought a lot from Tibertus Jacobus Jones, whose location is more removed from dwellings than the site last applied for. There will likely be counsel on both sides.

OCTOBER MATRIMONY.

In October, 1899, there were 17 marriages—eight white and nine colored. White—William H. Holland to Geneva Babb, Robert C. Lindsey to Evelyn Trench, John Lee Overton to Georgiana Cupepper, William Hatcher Eley to Beulah Lee Savage, Joseph G. Holland to Novella V. Norfleet, William Herbert Darden to Janet Alexander Withers, Romeo Benton to Effie H. Ellis, Thomas M. Green to Rosalthea I. Buck.

Colored—Willie Hall to Margaret Jones, Henry Knight to Cora Brinkley, J. Fields to Laura White, William Decker to Martha Faulk, Willie Riddick to Alice Pettway, Willie Thornton to Etta Purdy, Sam Chapman to Olivia Bellamy, William White to Annie Corbell, Robert Jones to Terupty Fitzgerald.

In October of last year there were five white and nine colored events.

"THE BOHEMIAN GIRL."

The Herald Square Opera Company to-night sang "The Bohemian Girl" to a much larger audience than that which greeted them last evening. Etta Stetson as Arline was warmly applauded. She has a voice of wide range, but slightly lacking in volume. May Glover made a volupitous looking Gypsy Queen. She was printed on last night's program as May Kline. Evangeline Collins won a recall by her song and dance specialty. The comedians started a few laughs in spots. The male voices are only mediocre.

BIG COLORED REGISTRATION.

Suffolk's registration is bigger than the estimate furnished by Registrar E. B. Britt Saturday night. Captain Britt said to-night that the number of persons who had registered were by actual count 630—469 white and 161 colored.

Boykin will carry Suffolk by a majority estimated from 150 to 300. Some of his friends claim that Shands will not get over 125 or 150 votes here, and others put it less. Mr. Shands lacks leaders.

There has been a good-sized colored registration at most county precincts, considering the fact that there is no Republican in the field. The colored voters will go mostly for Boykin. It was reported to-night that there were 1,500 colored persons registered, with three precincts to hear from.

BELONGED TO CHUCKATUCK.

Osborn Baxter, who was drowned last week near Norfolk, was a member of Chuckatuck Lodge, No. 63, Colored Masons, which lodge stands for all the fraternal expenses. Past Master T. H. Chappell went to Norfolk to-day and settled the funeral charges, which amounted to $75.

DUCKS PLENTIFUL.

Mr. John W. Eley, a crack sportsman, had fine luck in duck shooting to-day. He went in Lake Kilby and on
